Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 36-59, drawn to a method for preparing a grafted homodetic cyclopeptide.

Group II, claim(s) 60-66, drawn to a grafted homodetic cyclopeptide and compositions thereof comprising a peptide derived from cyclo(RGDfK).

Group III, claim(s) 67-68, drawn to a method of treating cancer comprising administering a composition comprising the homodetic cyclopeptide.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the shared technical feature (the  $\alpha v\beta 3$  integrin inhibitor, cyclo(RGDfK)) is anticipated by Liu et al (US 2003/0125243 A1), and therefore is not a special technical feature within the meaning of PCT Rule 13.2.

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

The molecules of interest in claim 55, other combinations of the molecules of interest that define the upper face and grafted lower face of the grafted homodetic cyclopeptide comprising  $\alpha v\beta 3$  integrin peptides, apoptogenic peptides, doxorubicin and toxic proteins in claim 61; combinations of  $\alpha v\beta 3$  integrin peptides and a detectable molecule of the chromophore, biotin, fluorophore, radioemitter type or precursor in claim 62; combinations of carbohydrate derivatives and T-dependent epitopic peptides, cyclotoxic peptides or several therapeutic molecules in claim 63; combinations of carbohydrate derivatives and chromophores, biotin, fluorophores and radioemitters or chemical precursor groups in claim 64; combinations of B-dependent epitopes of the carbohydrate type or T-dependent epitopes and an immunoadjuvant in claim 65; and other combinations of the molecules of interest that define the upper face and grafted lower face of the grafted homodetic cyclopeptide, not specifically recited in the claims.

4. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the shared technical feature (the  $\alpha v\beta 3$  integrin inhibitor, cyclo(RGDfK)) is anticipated by Liu et al (US 2003/0125243 A1).

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species i.e., the specific combination of the molecules of interest that define the upper face and grafted lower face of the grafted homodetic cyclopeptide peptide, must be defined completely to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Notice of Possible Rejoinder

5. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
